WOODEN

200x1200MM

Discover the allure of nature indoors with our 200x1200mm wooden tiles

For interior spaces, 200x1200mm wooden strip tiles provide a seamless blend of elegance and functionality. Their extended proportions produce a powerful visual impact that amplifies the impression of depth and space in a place. These well-made wood tiles are a great option for both traditional and modern design trends since they add warmth and natural appeal to any space.

Tiles Thickness

Thickness :

This refers to the measurement of the tile from one surface to the other. In the case of 200x1200mm tiles, thickness can vary depending on the type of tile and its intended use.

Punch :

It seems there might be a confusion here, as "punch" typically doesn't directly relate to tile specifications. If you meant "finish" or "texture," that could be more relevant.
